NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The divine Sarah Bernhardt has returned to America looking younger than ever. I was at the pier with her manager, W. F. Conner, when the steamer Espagno arrived. A score of admirers strolled around, roses and lilies over the gangplank across which she was borne in her sedan chair to her waiting automobile. She is sensitive about the loss of her room and in the midst of rapid questioning, she suddenly stopped and exclaimed that she was hungry. Waters hurriedly brought food and she dined but she did not permit dining to interfere with the interview. Photographers came in droves and she posed for them all. Afterward her press agent said to me: "Being a press agent for Madam Bernhardt is about as easy as being press agent for the Kaiser." And the boy is right.

The Mirimba band from Guatemala is to be a feature of the new ice skating season at St. Nicholas ring this season. It was making noises the other night when Cornelius Fellows entered the building.

"Great music, that," he said. "Did you ever hear 'Home Sweet Home' played better?"

"That's not 'Home Sweet Home'," said Bide Dudley, "candling nearby."

"That's 'Old Black Joe'."

An argument ensued and the two sought the leader of the band, who spoke little English.

"What was the tune?" asked Mr. Fellows.

The Guatemalan shook his head and grinned. "No moonick," he replied. "Chuning up."

The treasurer of the Liberty theater was selling tickets the other afternoon when a man, evidently from the country, appeared at the box office window. "One good seat," he said.

The treasurer pushed out a ticket. "There's one in the orchestra," he said.

The person pushed it back. "Not for me," he said. "I can't play nothing."

Down on the Bowery there is a new club formed. It is called the "Ex-Cokers" and it is composed of the former and jostling of the slums who have given up cocaine. The men have banded together and when one of their members feels that he simply must have the drug the others watch him and keep him from it even to the point of locking him in a room they have for this special purpose. There are ten members and all were freed from drug addiction by long prison terms but they found that when they were freed the old yearning came back.

WAR-NING!

In the face of very slow and almost no imports from Europe we feel fortunate indeed that our line of imported China is large and complete. The imports for the season of 1916 are all in and our advice is that very little or none will be shipped until after the warring conditions are settled in Europe.

If you are considering Imported China or Cut Glass for yourself or for some one else, our advice would be not delay.

Whether you are in the market or not, the invitation is extended to visit our China Dept.
